RE: Christmas Message

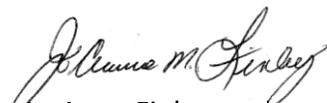

A lot of people try to cram all their holiday cheer into two jam-packed weeks of intense celebration. They hustle and bustle around getting their tinsel in a tangle and truly miss the whole point of this wonderful season.

Our wish for our Sisters and Brothers is that instead of this crazed jam-packed few weeks we take a little Bit of Christmas each day and spread that warm fuzzy feeling of celebration and fun throughout the whole year by sharing the spirit of loving and caring.

Christmas and all it stands for is too important to get all tangled in tinsel and the stressors of untangling it.

Christmas is a time to know that gifts from Santa symbolize all that is good in the world; trust, faith, hope and charity and by adding holly, mistletoe, glitter, Christmas carols and snowflakes and you have a season full of love family and tradition, a reason to believe that it all began with the gift of God's son.

As we enter into the Christmas season, Brother Brian and I, after all the joys we have experienced, feel like Christmas has already arrived. Our travels have brought many wonderful people and experiences to us and we are richer for it and we wish the same joy of the Christmas season to all our Sisters and Brothers and a healthy and prosperous New Year.
