January 2024 – Newsletter

From the desk of the Worthy Grand Matron:

The remaining days of 2023 are flying by!

The Grand family had an amazing time at our final three Official Visits.

Thank you, Sister Joanna Wiggins, DDGM for your warm welcome to Natchitoches and District 4. The spaghetti lunch was quite delicious and was enjoyed by all. Our food bank donations were given to Castor United Methodist Home.

At District 3’s Official Visit, we were blessed with the music of Jaxon Harvey. This very talented young man sang Brother Charlie’s and my favorite songs. As requested, we brought children’s underwear for the Methodist Children Home. Thank you, Susan Hinckley, DDGM and the members of District 3 for all of your hard work.

Purple, green and gold was the theme of the day in District 11. All who attended – Passed a Good Time. Everyone had a great time taking photos and enjoying the wonderful New Orleans cuisine.

Thank you, Sister Tara Greene, DDGM for a “Laissez Le Bon Temps Rouler!” kind of a day.

Keynote for all three Official Visits - My love and friendship to all members of our beautiful Grand Chapter. And my continued loyalty to our beloved Order.

Our next stop – the 124th “Love, Loyalty and Friendship” Grand Chapter.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!”

2 Corinthians 5:17

Happy 2024!

Peace

Susan Rabb-Williams
